

Lavender cottage

This 18th century brick cottage was part of the Ferme Orne envisage by Capability Brown. Today it is a three-bedroom cottage with south-west facing garden in the middle of Highclere,

Downstairs there are two reception rooms with an open fire, a modern fitted kitchen, utility room and downstairs WC.

There is a southwest-facing garden, covered car parking and good storage space.

For further information about these properties or to arrange a viewing please email estateoffice@highclerecastle.co.uk